AEBR Newsflash February 2010

NEW PRESIDENT OF THE ASSOCIATION OF EUROPEAN BORDER REGIONS

Mr. Karl-Heinz Lambertz, Minister-President of the German-speaking Community of Belgium, was elected President of the Association of European Border Regions on the occasion of the AEBR Executive Committee meeting on 19 February 2010 in Oulu (Tornedalsrådet/Bothnian Arc, FI). Karl-Heinz Lambertz is member of the Committee of the Regions and general reporter of the Council of Europe's Congress of Local and Regional Authorities on cross-border cooperation. He has a long experience in the field of territorial cohesion.

You can find our new President's greeting message as well as his CV and photo in: http://www.aebr.net/news/news_aebr.php?lc=en&nid=261#261

CROSS-BORDER TRANSPORT LINKS

AEBR Forum "Transport as an Instrument for Territorial Cohesion and Cooperation", 4th and 5th February 2010, Huesca, Aragón

Some 150 participants gathered on 4 February in Huesca (Aragón, ES) in order to follow the discussions and presentations of the main topic "Transport as an Instrument for Territorial Cohesion and Cooperation".

Mr. Javier Velasco Rodríguez, Minister of the Presidency in the Regional Government of Aragón, opened this forum presenting the "Pyrenean Central Crossing" as a strong incentive for the term of the Spanish Presidency in the first half of 2010. He furthermore underlined that the summit of the Ministers responsible for Transport, which will take place in Zaragoza, "might be a commitment of the whole EU to support this demand".

The AEBR was represented by First Vice-President Jean-Paul Heider (Région Alsace, FR) and Secretary General Martín Guillermo Ramírez. With the opening of Fernando Elboj Broto, Mayor of Huesca, a strong representation of the Government of Aragón, MEP Inés Ayala (ES), DG REGIO, and representatives of the regions Carinthia (AT), Extremadura (ES), Midi-Pyrénées (FR) and Norte (PT), the French Department of Hautes-Pyrénées, Switzerland and the Spanish Federation of Entrepreneurs CEOE gathered at the foot of the Pyrenees to discuss on the framework and practices of Cross-Border Transport. An online connection through videoconference was organized with the event INTERMODES 2010 (<http://www.intermodes.com>).

Detailed information on this event (organised in cooperation with the regional government of Aragón and the Trans-Pyrenean Foundation), declarations, presentations, photos, and press releases can be found on AEBR's website: http://www.aebr.net/news/news_aebr.php?lc=en&nid=257#257

EU'S EXTERNAL BORDERS

AEBR Task Force External Borders meeting and seminar on 18 February 2010, Oulu (Tornedalsrådet/Bothnian Arc, Finland)

Some 15 participants attended the meeting of the AEBR Task Force "External Borders", and around 50 participants gathered at the open seminar on CROSS-BORDER RESPONSE TO CURRENT REGIONAL DEVELOPMENT CHALLENGES ACROSS EUROPE - Cross-Border Cooperation (CBC) at the EU External Borders.

The Task Force dealt with the current developments at the external borders of the EU, stressing the need to open new communication channels with border regions in the Balkans and the Black Sea. Information was also provided on the constitution of the Euro-Mediterranean Assembly of Regional and Local Authorities (ARLEM). It was proposed to check the members' interest to organize a Task Force dealing with International Cooperation (CBC far beyond Europe). Programmed events for 2010 were presented as well: a Task Force meeting in Seville on 27 May 2010 (to deal especially with the Mediterranean Cooperation) and a Seminar in Istria (HR) on 16

September 2010 to focus on CBC in the Balkans. Information was delivered on the preparation of several projects, including the second edition of the Task Force's Summer School.

Some 50 participants gathered at the seminar opened by Kalervo Ukkola, Secretary General of the City of Oulu. The Secretary General of the AEBR gave a general overview of CBC at the EU External Borders. Heikki Aalto (Bothnian Arc) and Peter Hagström (Tornedalsrådet) presented the host CB structures. The representatives of the Nordic Council of Ministers Harry Ekestam, Ministry of Employment and Economy (FI), and Lars Erik Häggman, Pohjola-Norden, member of the Gränshinderforum, showed the strong commitment of the NCM in supporting CBC in the Nordic countries. The Kvarken Council was represented by its Director Christina Knookala. It followed a round table with best practices and recommendations composed by Alexei Kiryukhin, Euroregion Slovozhanschina (RU-UA); Urpo Moisio, South Karelia (FI), Chairman of the AEBR Task Force on External Borders; the scientist Anaïs Marin offered her presentation „CBC as a cornerstone of good neighbourhood“; and Marc de Buck, First Deputy of the Province of East Flanders (BE), Euregio Scheldemond (BE/NL) and AEBR Vice-President presented “Interregional cooperation in a globalising world: a case-study on cooperation between a Belgian Province and two Asian countries”

Presentations of these events will soon be available on:

Inaugural meeting of the Euro-Mediterranean Assembly of Local and Regional Authorities (ARLEM)

On 21 January 2010, more than seventy local and regional representatives from thirty countries around the three shores of the Mediterranean met in Barcelona for the inaugural meeting of the Euro-Mediterranean Assembly of Local and Regional Authorities (ARLEM). They called on EU Commissioner, Paweł Samecki, and Spanish State Secretary, Ángel Losada Torres-Quevedo, to ensure an "inclusive process" and to give "priority to tangible actions". As Co-Presidents were elected Mohamed Boudra, Mayor of Al Hoceima (MA) and the President of the Committee of the Regions in office (at that time Luc van den Brande (BE), today Mercedes Bresso (President of Piedmont, IT)). The six members of the Bureau were also elected, and the host region of Catalonia was assigned the Secretariat. The President of the Region of Andalusia, José Antonio Griñán Martínez, is the representative of the Association of European Border Regions in ARLEM. The full CoR press release, speeches as well as detailed information on ARLEM can be found on:

MEETING WITH DIRECTOR GENERAL DIRK AHNER, DG REGIO

The AEBR Secretary General Martín Guillermo Ramírez and the Chairman of the AEBR Advisory Committee, Jens Gabbe, kept the last of their regular meetings with Director General Dirk Ahner in Brussels on 10th February. A very rich and stimulating conversation focused on the need to keep territorial cohesion approaches and the future of the Territorial Cooperation Objective. The impact of the EU 2020 consultation, the debate between the territorial or the mere sectorial approach of the EU, and territorial cooperation at the external borders of the EU were other main topics discussed.

NETWORK OF CROSS-BORDER RAMSAR SITES

The region of Alsace (FR) launched a Network of Cross-Border Ramsar sites in Strasbourg last 29 January. A working session with the participation of the 12 European CB Ramsar sites was organized with the aims of discussing their activities and expectations, promoting the declaration of more CB Ramsar sites (only 10% are formally declared as such) as well as providing joint management plans and finding good systematics to implement cross-border agreements. The Ramsar Convention on Internationally Important Wetlands was signed in that Iranian city in 1971, to protect and rationally use wetlands and their resources:

DG REGIO "Regional Focus" – Short Paper focusing on Public Investment in Spain

Regional and local authorities play an increasingly key role in the expenditure decisions of the public sector. In the context of the multi-level governance system, many decisions regarding Cohesion Policy and national equivalent expenditure take place at sub-national level. As a consequence, information about the expenditure of the different government levels is essential to understand the impact of public expenditure decisions in the economy.

The "Association of European Border Regions" (AEBR) is the oldest independent association of regions in Europe, founded in 1971, and the only one dealing with Cross-Border Cooperation (CBC). AEBR has almost forty years of extensive theoretical and practical experience in all aspects related to CBC, but also in the field of inter-regional and transnational co-operation. With one hundred members (border and cross-border European regions), the AEBR is a forum for cross-border cooperation and makes the voice of the border and cross-border regions heard at European level.
